

Canada Days
University of Missouri at Columbia
Wednesday, 22 February to Friday, 24 February 2006

Wednesday, February 22

- 12:00-1:00 Canadian Studies Grant Program luncheon
Location: Memorial Union N214/N215
- Lunch program for faculty and graduate students to promote grant opportunities for Canadian Studies topics
 - Partnership with Canadian Studies Working Group and Department of International Programs; sponsored by Canadian Consulate General of Chicago
 - RSVP to Kate Mullock at mullockk@missouri.edu
- 7:00 PM Screening of National Film Board of Canada film The Peacekeepers
Location: Ellis Auditorium
- Q&A to follow

Thursday, February 23

- 3:00 Women's Film Symposium with Alanis Obomsawin
Location: Windsor Auditorium, Stephens College
- Round-table discussion with other filmmakers including Grace Lee and Heather McDonald, with screenings of film excerpts
 - Organized and sponsored by the True/False Film Festival and the Ragtag Cinema Café
- 3:30 Michael Hart (Simon Reisman Professor of Trade Policy, Carleton University) keynote presentation, "Ties that Bind and Myths that Distort: Challenges to Canada-U.S. Relations"
Location: Cornell Hall auditorium
- MBA seminar series, Q&A to follow
- 7:00 Screening of Kanehsatake: 270 Years of Resistance,
Location: Jesse Wrench Auditorium, S107 Memorial Union
- Q&A with director Alanis Obomsawin and reception to follow
 - Hosted by the Chancellor's Diversity Initiative

Friday, February 24

- 12:00 Lunchtime lecture by Craig Palmer, Department of Anthropology,
"Newfoundland Culture, Politics, and Environmental Knowledge: Using LES to distinguish LEK from LET"
Location: Tucker 18
- Sponsored by Canadian Consulate General
 - Free pizza and soda!